THE FAIR

For Harrison County commences to-day Wednesday, October 5. As nearly all of our patrons will either come to the Fair, or will have an opportunity to send to Cadiz on this occasion, we will esteem it as a great personal favor, if all those who are indebted to us, and their name is legion, would make it convenient to pay that indebtedness during the Fair next week. We are in great need and a large amount of it, to pay our expenses, on account of the increased price of paper, ink, labor, &c. To enable us to publish the Scatinel successfully, we must have all this time.

William Healea, son of our estemed fellow citizen, Joseph Healea, of this township, died in the hospital at Atlanta, on the 20th of September, from the effects of a wound received a short time before in a battle near that place. William was a member of Company K, 69th O. V. V. I. from its organization. He was always at his post, and done his duty bravely and manfully.-He was a noble kindhearted boy, and will be greatly missed by his brave companions in arms. To his sorrowing mother, fatherbrothers, sisters and numerous relatives and friends, we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

> De "Pete" Talman has been round this county, during the past week, by appointment of the Abolition Central Committee, telling decent people how they should rote. In his own county (Belmont) he makes no speeches, because his own party are fearful that such a practical "miscegen" would injure their cause. The abolition Central Committee of this county must be hard up for timber when they invite such a fellow to make speeches to our people.

The abolition meeting at the Cadiz Junction on last Wednesday, considering the efforts that were made to get it up, turned out to be a miserable fizzle. Flaming handbills had been circulated all over the county, an extra train was run from Cadiz, and every other appliance used to get up a monster crowd, but still the crowd was not there. Reasons—the people of Harrison county, without respect to party, have not got so low as to give countenance to such fellows as "Pete" Talman. Mr. Danford, the other speaker, is something of an orator, a gentleman and a brave soldier, so far as we know, but he was traveling in bad company when he was perambulating this county.

What a penchant some men have for filling little offices. This thought struck us very sensible on last Tuesday week, when we saw one of the wealthiest men in Harison county, a man that has, been its Representative, and has been for nearly twenty years a director of one the Cadiz banks, filling the very little office of notifyer of drafted men. We thought, can it be, that a man having the wealth that man has, would fill such a small office? But it makes no difference to some men how wealthy they are, they are never contented unless they are in some small petty office, let there be over so much odium attached to the office.
